DECEPTIVE MAIL ORDER PRACTICES

13:45A-1.1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- a) Without limiting any other practices which may be unlawful under the Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., this rule makes unlawful thereunder some specific practices in the mail order or catalog business.

- b) It is an unlawful practice in connection with the advertisement or sale of merchandise for a person conducting a mail order or catalog business to accept money through the mail or any electronic transfer medium, for merchandise ordered by mail, telephone, facsimile transmission or electronic mail and then permit six weeks to elapse without either:
 - 1) Delivering or mailing the merchandise order; or

 - 2) Making a full refund; or

 - 3) Sending the consumer a letter or notice advising the consumer of the duration of an expected delay or the substitution of merchandise of equivalent or superior quality, and offering to send a refund within one week if so requested. If a proposal to substitute merchandise is made, it shall describe, in specific detail, how the substituted merchandise differs from the merchandise ordered; or

 - 4) Sending the consumer substituted merchandise of equivalent or superior quality, together with:
 - i) A written notice offering, without reservation, to accept the return of the merchandise at the seller's expense within 14 days of receipt of the merchandise and, upon request, the consumer's choice of either, a refund of cash paid, including the amount of postage to return the item, or a credit; and

- ii) A postage-paid letter or card on which the consumer may indicate whether he wishes the purchase price to be refunded or credited to his account within 14 days of receipt of the letter or card by the seller. The consumer's request entered on such a letter or card must be honored by the seller; and
 - iii) The written notice and postage-paid letter or card, as stated in (b)4i and ii above, need not be sent with the merchandise, if in lieu thereof, a statement that the seller will accept the return of the merchandise for a period of at least 14 days without reservation is printed in the catalog itself.
- c) For purposes of (b)3 and 4 above, merchandise may not be considered of "equivalent or superior quality" if it is not substantially similar to the merchandise ordered or not fit for the purposes intended, or if the seller normally offers the substituted merchandise at a price lower than the price of the merchandise ordered.
- d) Subsection (b) above does not apply:
- 1) To merchandise ordered pursuant to an open-end credit plan as defined in the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act or any other credit plan pursuant to which the consumer's account was opened prior to the mail order in question, and under which the creditor may permit the customer to make purchases from time to time from the creditor or by use of a credit card; or
 - 2) When all advertising for the merchandise contains a notice (which, in the case of printed advertising, shall be in a type size at least as large as the price) that delay may be expected of a specified period. In such cases, one of the events described in (b) above must occur no later than one week after expiration of the period specified in the advertisement; or
 - 3) To merchandise, such as quarterly magazines, which by their nature are not produced until a future date and for that reason cannot be stocked at the time of order; or
 - 4) To installments other than the first of merchandise, such as magazine subscriptions, ordered for serial delivery.
- e) It is an unlawful practice in connection with the advertisement or sale of merchandise for a person conducting a mail order or catalog business to fail to disclose the legal name of the company and the complete and permanent street address from which the business is actually conducted in any materials, including advertising and promotional materials, order blanks and order forms, which contain a mailing address other than the actual street address from which the business actually engages in or conducts business.

- f) The provisions of this section shall apply to any person who conducts a mail order or catalog business in or from the State of New Jersey or who advertises or sells merchandise via mail order or catalog into this State.

13:45A-9.2 GENERAL ADVERTISING PRACTICES

- a) Without limiting the application of N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., the following practices shall be unlawful with respect to all advertisements:
- 1) The failure of an advertiser to maintain and offer for immediate purchase advertised merchandise in a quantity sufficient to meet reasonably anticipated consumer demand therefor. When an advertisement states a specific period of time during which merchandise will be available for sale, a sufficient quantity of such merchandise shall be made available to meet reasonably anticipated consumer demand during the stated period. When no stated period appears in the advertisement, a sufficient quantity of merchandise shall be made available to meet reasonably anticipated consumer demand during three consecutive business days commencing with the effective date of the advertisement. The requirement of this subsection shall not be applicable to merchandise which is advertised:
 - i) On an in-store sign only with no corresponding out-of-store sign;
 - ii) As being available in a specific quantity; or
 - iii) As being available in a "limited supply," pursuant to a "closeout sale" or pursuant to a "clearance sale" if such offering meets the definition of a closeout sale; or if represented to be permanently reduced.
 - 2) The failure of an advertiser to specifically designate within an advertisement which merchandise items possess special or limiting factors relating to price, quality, condition or availability. By way of illustration, and not by limitation, the following shall be deemed violative of this sub-paragraph:
 - i) The failure to specifically designate which merchandise items are below cost, if any amount less than all advertised items are below cost, when a statement of below cost sales is set forth in an advertisement;

 - iii) The failure to specifically designate merchandise as floor models, discontinued models or one of a kind, when applicable;

- iv) The failure to clearly designate or describe the retail outlets at which advertised merchandise will or will not be available. Such information need not be disclosed on any in-store advertisement.
- 3) The failure to conspicuously post notice of advertised merchandise, on the business premises to which the advertisement applies, in proximity to the advertised merchandise or at all entrances to the business premises. Such notice may consist of a copy of the advertisement or may take the form of a tag attached to the merchandise or any sign with such terms as "sale," "as advertised," "20% off."
- 4) In any price advertisement in which a home appliance is offered for sale, the failure of an advertiser to disclose the following information relating to the advertised merchandise: the manufacturer's name or the merchandise trade name, the model or series number and such other information as may be necessary to clearly delineate the advertised item from other similar merchandise produced by the same manufacturer.
- 5) The use of any type, size, location, lighting, illustration, graphic depiction or color resulting in the obscuring of any material fact. Disclaimers permitted or required under this section, such as "terms and conditions apply" and "quantities limited," shall be set forth in a type size and style that is clear and conspicuous relative to the other type sizes and styles used in the advertisement.
- 6) The use of the terms "Public Notice," "Public Sale" or words or terms of similar meaning in any advertisement offering merchandise for sale, where such sale is not required by court order or by operation of law, other than a sale conducted by an auctioneer on behalf of a nonbusiness entity.
- 7) Describing the advertiser through the use of the terms "warehouse," "factory outlet," "discount," "bargain," "clearance," "liquidators," "unclaimed freight," or other words or terms of similar meaning, whether in the advertiser's corporate, partnership or trade name or otherwise, where such terms do not reflect a bona fide description of the advertiser being described.
- 8) Whenever an advertiser provides a raincheck for an advertised item which is not available for immediate purchase, the failure to:
 - i) Honor or satisfy such raincheck within 60 days of issuance unless an extension of such time period is agreed to by the holder thereof or, if after a good faith effort an advertiser cannot procure for the holder of the raincheck the advertised merchandise within the 60-day period, failure to offer the holder of the raincheck a different item of merchandise of substantially the same kind, quality and price as the original advertised merchandise; and

- ii) Give written or telephonic notice to the holder thereof when the merchandise is available and hold such merchandise for not less than 10 days after giving such notice or to the end of the 60-day period for which the raincheck is valid, whichever is longer, for all merchandise with an advertised unit price greater than $15.00;
- iii) Offer a raincheck to all customers who are unable, due to the unavailability thereof, to purchase the advertised merchandise during the period of time during which the merchandise has been advertised as available for sale; and
- iv) Conspicuously post its raincheck policy on a sign in at least one of the following locations:

 - (2) So situated as to be clearly visible to the buyer;
 - (3) Posted at each store entrance used by the public;
 - (4) At the location where the merchandise was offered for sale;
 - (5) In an advertisement for merchandise; or
 - (6) Printed on the receipt of sale.
- 9) The making of false or misleading representations of facts concerning the reasons for, existence or amounts of price reductions, the nature of an offering or the quantity of advertised merchandise available for sale.
- 10) The failure of an advertiser to substantiate through documents, records or other written proof any claim made regarding the safety, performance, availability, efficiency, quality or price of the advertised merchandise, nature of the offering or quantity of advertised merchandise available for sale. Such records shall be made available upon request for inspection by the Division or its designee at the advertiser's regular place of business or central office in New Jersey, or, at the advertiser's option, the Division's designated offices, for a period of 90 days following the effective date of the advertisement.
- 11) The use, directly or indirectly, of a comparison to a suggested retail price, inventory price, invoice price or similar terms that directly or indirectly compare or suggest the comparison between the cost of supply and the price at retail for the advertised merchandise.

- 12) Use of the term “cost,” “wholesale” or other similar terms to describe an advertised price where such price is not equal to or less than the price per unit paid by the advertiser to the manufacturer or distributor of the merchandise. In the computation of the price per unit of the advertised merchandise, freight may be included if the advertiser pays for same and is not reimbursed therefore, but handling and all overhead or operating expenses shall be excluded.
- 13) The advertising of a free-to-pay conversion as a “risk free trial,” or a “free trial,” or as any other offer that requires the consumer to do nothing other than accept merchandise or a service without any obligation, unless the advertisement clearly states the length of the period the offer is without obligation or that terms and conditions apply.

 - 4) Set forth the former price or price range or the amount of reduction in dollars in close proximity to the selling price or price range and the advertised item;
 - 5) Set forth the basis upon which the former price or price range or the amount of reduction in dollars was established in close proximity to the former price or price range of the advertised item. In this regard, terms such as “comparable value,” “competitor’s price,” “our regular price,” or words of similar import shall be used to designate the basis for the former price; and
 - 6) Set forth with specificity when in the remote past a former price of an item of merchandise was effective if it was not actively or openly offered for sale within the advertiser’s trade area in the regular course of business during at least 28 of the 90 days before the effective date of the advertisement. In this regard, when advertising a seasonal sale, such as Christmas dishes, pool supplies, outdoor furniture, etc., actual dates, specific holidays or terms such as “last season,” may be used to describe when the former price was used in the remote past.
- b) A former price or a selling price may be stated in terms of a price range when, and only when:
- 1) An advertiser operates more than one retail outlet at which advertised merchandise has been or will be available for purchase at different prices in the ordinary course of business. In such case, the price range shall be based upon the sales or offers of sale at the advertiser’s retail outlets; or
 - 2) An advertiser advertises two or more items of comparable merchandise as available at reduced prices, in which case the price range shall be based upon former or usual selling prices of the advertised products.
- i) The following examples would comply with this paragraph: “Regular price $110 to $125—On sale for $100”; “Brand X 19” color TV—Regularly $250 to $300. Now $150 to $200.”

13:45A-9.5 PRICE REDUCTION ADVERTISEMENTS; MERCHANDISE ADVERTISED AS A SAVINGS OF A PERCENTAGE OR A RANGE OF PERCENTAGES

- a) An advertiser offering merchandise for sale at a savings of a percentage or a range of percentages (such as “save 20% or 20% to 50% off”) shall, in addition to complying with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 13:45A-9.2:
 - 1) State the minimum percentage reduction as conspicuously (such as the same size print) as the maximum percentage reduction when applicable; and
 - 2) Set forth the basis upon which the former price was established pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:45A-9.6(b), in close proximity to the percentage reduction. In this regard, terms such as “competitor’s price” or “our regular price” or words of similar import shall be used to designate the basis for the former price.
- b) Percentage-off discounts made in accordance with N.J.A.C. 13:45A-9.8 shall be exempt from the requirements of (a) above.

13:45A-9.6 PRICING; PROHIBITION ON FICTITIOUS PRICING AND METHODS OF SUBSTANTIATION

- a) An advertiser shall not use a fictitious former price. Use of a fictitious former price will be deemed to be a violation of the Consumer Fraud Act.
- b) A former price or price range or the amount of reduction shall be deemed fictitious if it can not be substantiated, based upon proof:
 - 1) Of a substantial number of sales of the advertised merchandise, or comparable merchandise of like grade or quality made within the advertiser’s trade area in the regular course of business at any time within the most recent 60 days during which the advertised merchandise was available for sale prior to, or which were in fact made in the first 60 days during which the advertised merchandise was available for sale following the effective date of the advertisement;
 - 2) That the advertised merchandise, or comparable merchandise of like grade or quality, was actively and openly offered for sale at that price within the advertiser’s trade area in the regular course of business during at least 28 days of the most recent 90 days before or after the effective date of the advertisement; or
 - 3) That the price does not exceed the supplier’s cost plus the usual and customary mark-up used by the advertising merchant in the actual sale of the advertised merchandise or comparable merchandise of like grade or quality in the recent regular course of business.

- c) If the former price specifically references a time in the remote past during which it was offered, it shall be deemed fictitious unless substantiated pursuant to either (b)1 or 3 above.
- d) The following examples of fictitious pricing are provided for illustration only and are not intended to limit the types of advertising the Division shall consider to be fictitious:
 - 1) John Doe is a retailer of Brand X fountain pens which cost him $5.00 each. His usual markup is 50 percent over cost. That is, his regular retail price is $7.50. In order subsequently to offer an unusual “bargain,” Doe temporarily raises the price of Brand X pens to $10.00 each. In so doing, Doe realizes that he will only be able to sell a few pens, if any, at this inflated price. But he does not care, because he intends to maintain that price for only a few days. Then he “cuts” the artificially inflated price of $10.00 to the usual price—$7.50 at which time he advertises: “Terrific Bargain: X Pens, Were $10, Now Only $7.50.” This is obviously a false claim. The advertised “bargain” is not genuine.
 - 2) Retailer Doe advertises Brand X pens as having a “Retail Price $15.00, My Price $7.50,” when, in fact, only a few small suburban boutique-type stores in the area charge $15.00. All of the larger outlets, like retailer Doe’s, located in and around the main shopping areas charge approximately $7.50. This advertisement would be deceptive because the price charged by the small suburban boutique or specialty stores would have no real significance to Doe’s customers, to whom the advertisement of “Retail Value $15.00” would suggest a prevailing, and not merely an isolated and unrepresentative price in the area in which they shop.
 - 3) Retailer Doe advertises Brand X pen as “Comparable Value $15.00” when only a small number of unrepresentative specialty stores in the trade area offer Brand Y, an essentially similar pen, for that price. This is a related form of misleading advertising because the price of the comparable merchandise (that is, Brand Y), which is cited for comparison is not representative of the price for Brand Y being charged by representative retail outlets in the advertiser’s trade area.

13:45A-9.7 APPLICATION OF REGULATION

- a) This subchapter shall apply to the following advertisements:
 - 1) Any advertisement uttered, issued, printed, disseminated or distributed within this State concerning goods and services advertised as available at locations exclusively within this State; and

and services advertised as available at locations within this State and outside this State; and

- 3) Any advertisement, other than radio and television broadcasts, issued, printed, disseminated or distributed primarily within this State concerning goods and services advertised as available at locations exclusively outside this State; and
 - 4) Any radio and television broadcasts uttered, issued, disseminated or distributed primarily within this State and outside this State, or at locations exclusively outside this State.
- b) An advertiser, a manufacturer, an advertising agency and the owner or publisher of a newspaper, magazine, periodical, circular, billboard or radio or television station acting on behalf of an advertising seller shall be deemed an advertiser within the meaning of this subchapter, when such entity prepares or places an advertisement for publication. No such entity shall be liable for a violation of this subchapter when the entity reasonably relies upon data, information or materials supplied by an advertising seller for whom the advertisement is prepared or placed or when the violation is caused by an act, error or omission beyond the entity's control, including but not limited to, the post-publication performance of the advertising seller. Notwithstanding that an advertisement has been prepared or placed for publication by one of the aforementioned entities, the advertiser on whose behalf such advertisement was placed may be liable for any violation of this subchapter.
- c) An advertiser has no liability under this subchapter for a failure to comply with any requirement thereof if the advertiser shows by a preponderance of evidence that failure to comply resulted from actions of persons other than the advertiser which were not, or should not have been reasonably anticipated by the advertiser; or that such failure was the result of a labor strike or a natural disaster such as, but not limited to, fires, floods and earthquakes.
- d) If any provisions of this subchapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held unconstitutional or beyond the statutory powers of the Attorney General, the remainder of this subchapter and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.

13:45A-9.8 RETAIL DISCOUNTS IN SCANNER STORES; PERCENTAGE-OFF DISCOUNTS; POINT-OF-SALE DISCOUNTS; MULTI-TIERED PRICING OFFERS; TARGETED DISCOUNTS

- a) Retail establishments which use scanners that have the capability of providing percentage-off discounts, and wish to offer percentage-off discounts at the point of sale shall set forth the regular price and the price after any discounts are taken relating to the merchandise purchased by the consumer on the register receipt given to the consumer at the point of sale.

- b) An advertiser who offers a percentage-off discount is not required to disclose the basis of the percentage reduction or the regular price or price range in an advertisement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:45A-9.5 provided that:
 - 1) The retail price per unit of merchandise is less than $100.00; and
 - 2) The regular price and the price after any discounts are taken are set forth on the register receipt given to the consumer at the point of sale.
- c) An advertiser may discount merchandise at the point of sale without marking the merchandise with the discounted price provided that the following information is posted conspicuously in the form of a notice at the point of display:
 - 1) A description of the merchandise or the range or category of merchandise and the price to which the discount shall apply;
 - 2) A notice that the discount will be taken at the time of purchase; and
 - 3) The specific amount or type of discount applicable, such as "$10.00 off" or "25% off posted price."
- d) Advertisements and point of display materials involving multi-tiered pricing offers made by advertisers shall contain the following:
 - 1) All retail prices or discounts comprising the offer and the types of purchases to which they apply, for example:
 - i) "Treefree Paper Towels—Get first roll at 79 2nd roll at 690 and each additional roll at 590";
 - ii) "Wonder Hot Dog Rolls—$1.09 only; 790 with purchase of Plochman's Mustard"; and
 - 2) Any limitations applicable to the offer, such as the type, brand or size of the merchandise or restrictions on the number of units which may be purchased.
- e) Advertisements containing targeted discounts shall conspicuously state that the offer is limited to a certain category of consumer and shall specifically identify those consumers. If the merchandise to be discounted is also being advertised at a reduced price for all consumers, the advertisement shall clearly distinguish between the types of offers made by the advertiser and identify those consumers who are entitled to each offer.

- 1) Any targeted discounts or pricing information posted at the point of display shall clearly and conspicuously state that the offer is limited, and shall identify the customers who are entitled to take advantage of the offer.

 - 1) Manufacturer’s warranties, if any are still applicable;
 - 2) Dealer’s warranties, if any;
 - 3) Dealer’s service contract, if such is agreed upon, which shall include a clear statement of:

- c) If the home appliance repairer is also the dealer from whom the appliance was purchased and there was a service contract covering the requested services, the provisions of (b) above shall not apply.

13:45A-10.3 DECEPTIVE PRACTICES

- a) Without limiting the prosecution of any other practices which may be unlawful under the Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., the following acts or omissions shall be deceptive practices in the conduct of the business of repairing and servicing home appliances:
- 1) Commencing work other than diagnostic work or work included in a diagnostic fee without having obtained the consumer's signature or the signature of the consumer's agent on a written itemized estimate of the labor and parts necessary, including specific notation of exchange price on parts where applicable. If such written consent cannot be obtained, repair work may be commenced only if the consumer has been advised of the estimate and has consented thereto and the person advising the consumer has noted the conversation on the estimate as well as the date, time and phone number at which he reached the consumer.
 - 2) Failure to provide the consumer with a copy of the above authorization and any other servicer's receipt or document requiring the consumer's signature, as soon as the consumer signs such document.

- 3) Making any deceptive or misleading statements, including but not limited to false or unrealistic promises and groundless estimates of a character likely to influence, persuade or induce a consumer to authorize the repair or service of a home appliance.
- 4) Charging the consumer for work done or parts supplied in excess of the estimated price without the oral or written consent of the consumer, which shall be obtained after it is determined that the estimated price is insufficient and before the work not estimated is done or the parts not estimated are supplied. If such consent is oral, the supplier of services shall make a notation on the documentation previously signed by the consumer of the date, time, name of the person authorizing the additional repairs and the telephone number, if any, together with a specification of the additional parts and labor and the total additional cost.
- 5) Failure to offer to return replaced parts to the consumer at the time of completion of the work, provided that the parts by virtue of their size, weight or other similar factors or for any safety reasons are not practical to return, unless the estimate and bill make specific reference to an exchange price for a particular part.

13:45A-10.4 EXCEPTIONS

- a) The provisions of N.J.A.C. 13:45A-10.2 and 10.3 above shall not apply to the repair and servicing of the following if the repair or servicing required is such as to constitute an emergency which presents an imminent hazard or threat to life or health:

13:45A-12.2 GENERAL PROVISIONS

a) Without limiting the prosecution of any other practices which may be unlawful under N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., the following acts, practices or omissions shall be deceptive practices in the conduct of the business of a pet dealer:

The animal history and health certificate shall be signed by the pet dealer, his agent or employee, and shall contain the following information:

WARNING

The animal which you have purchased (check one) ☐ has ☐ has not been previously vaccinated or inoculated. - 2) To fail to maintain a copy of the animal history and health certificate signed by the consumer for a period of one year following the date of sale and/or to fail to permit inspection thereof by an authorized representative of the Division upon two days' notice (exclusive of Saturday and Sunday).
- 3) To include in the animal history and health certificate any false or misleading statement.
- 4) To directly or indirectly refer, promote, suggest, recommend or advise that a consumer consult with, use, seek or obtain the services of a licensed veterinarian unless the consumer is provided with the names of not less than three licensed veterinarians of whom only one may be the veterinarian retained by the pet dealer for its purposes.
- 5) To describe or promote the operation of the business as a "kennel" unless the business operation falls within the definition contained in N.J.A.C. 13:45A-12.1 or the operation of the business as a "kennel" has been authorized by the issuance of a license pursuant to N.J.S.A. 4:19-15.8. In the absence of meeting such criteria, a pet dealer shall be considered to be engaged in the operation of a "pet shop" and shall, where the name for the business operation includes the word "kennel," indicate the following disclaimer in proximate location to the name for the business operation in all promotional or advertising activities:

"This business only engages in the operation of a pet shop."

- 6) To use or employ a name for the business operation which suggests or implies that such business operation is engaged in or is associated with any organization which registers or certifies the pedigree or lineage of animals and/or to represent, expressly or by implication, approval by or affiliation with such organization, unless the following disclaimer, as appropriate, appears in proximate location to the name for the business operation:

"This business only engages in the operation of a pet shop."

“This business only engages in the operation of a kennel.”

- 7) To state, promise or represent, directly or indirectly, that an animal is registered with an animal pedigree registry organization if such registration has not already been accomplished or that an animal is capable of being so registered, followed by a failure either to effect such registration or provide the consumer with the documents necessary therefor 120 days following the date of sale of such animal, if the animal has not already been returned to the pet dealer. In the event that a pet dealer fails to effect registration or to provide the necessary documents within 120 days following the date of sale, the consumer shall, upon written notice to the pet dealer, be entitled to choose one of the following options:
 - i) To return the animal and to receive a refund of the purchase price plus sales tax; or
 - ii) To retain the animal and to receive a partial refund of 75 percent of the purchase price plus sales tax.

13:45A-12.3 REQUIRED PRACTICES RELATED TO THE HEALTH OF ANIMALS AND FITNESS FOR SALE AND PURCHASE

- a) Without limiting the prosecution of any other practices that may be unlawful under N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., it shall be a deceptive practice for a pet dealer to sell animals within the State of New Jersey without complying with the following minimum standards relating to the health of animals and fitness for sale and purchase:
- 1) A pet dealer shall have each animal examined by a veterinarian licensed to practice in the State of New Jersey prior to the sale of the animal. The name and address of the examining veterinarian, together with the findings made and treatment (if any) ordered as a result of the examination, shall be noted on each animal's history and health certificate as required by N.J.A.C. 13:45A-12.2(a)1vii.
 - 2) A pet dealer shall label and identify each cage as to the:
 - i) Sex and breed of animal;
 - ii) Date and place of birth of each animal; and
 - iii) Name and address of the attending licensed New Jersey veterinarian and the date of initial examination.
 - 3) A pet dealer shall be required to quarantine any animal diagnosed as suffering from a contagious or infectious disease, illness or condition until such time as a licensed New Jersey veterinarian determines that such animal is free from contagion or infection. All animals requiring quarantining shall be placed in a quarantine area separated from the general animal population.
 - 4) A pet dealer shall be permitted to inoculate and vaccinate animals prior to purchase only on the order of a veterinarian licensed to practice in the State of New Jersey. A pet dealer, however, shall be prohibited from representing, directly or indirectly, that he is qualified to engage in or is engaging in, directly or indirectly, the following activities: diagnosing, prognosing, treating, administering, prescribing, operating on, manipulating or applying any apparatus or appliance for disease, pain, deformity, defect, injury, wound or physical condition of animals after purchase for the prevention of, or to test for, the presence of any disease in such animals. These prohibitions include but are not limited to the giving of inoculations or vaccinations after purchase, the diagnosing, prescribing and dispensing of medication to animals and the prescribing of any diet or dietary supplement as treatment for any disease, pain, deformity, defect, injury, wound or physical condition.

- 5) A pet dealer shall have any animal which has been examined more than 14 days prior to purchase reexamined by a licensed New Jersey veterinarian for the purpose of disclosing its condition at the time of purchase. Such examination shall take place within 72 hours of delivery of the animal to the consumer unless the consumer waives this right to reexamination in writing. The written waiver shall be in the following form and a copy shall be given to the consumer prior to the signing of any contract or agreement to purchase the animal:

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

To ensure that healthy animals are sold in this State, New Jersey law requires that a dog or cat be examined by a licensed New Jersey veterinarian prior to its sale by a pet dealer and within 72 hours of the delivery of the dog or cat to a consumer who has purchased the animal where the initial examination took place more than 14 days prior to the date of purchase. A pet dealer need not have the animal reexamined if you, the consumer, decide that you do not want such a reexamination performed.

If you do not want a reexamination performed, please indicate your decision below.

WAIVER OF REEXAMINATION RIGHT

I understand that I have the right to have my animal reexamined within 72 hours of its delivery to me. I do not want to have such a reexamination performed.

If the pet dealer fails to provide the notice required by (a)11 below, the consumer shall be entitled to the recourse provided for in (a)6 above.
- 9) When a consumer presents a veterinary certification of unfitness to the pet dealer, the pet dealer shall confirm the consumer's election in writing. The election shall be in the following form and a copy shall be given to the consumer upon signing:

- 10) A pet dealer shall comply with the consumer's election as required by (a)7i through iv above not later than 10 days following receipt of a veterinary certification. In the event that a pet dealer wishes to contest a consumer's election, he shall notify the consumer and the Director of the Division of Consumer Affairs in writing within five days following the receipt of the veterinarian's certification, and he may require the consumer to produce the animal for examination by a veterinarian of the dealer's choice at a mutually convenient time and place. The Director shall, upon receipt of such notice, provide a hearing pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq., and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1, to determine why the option elected by the consumer should not be allowed.
- 11) A pet dealer shall give the following written notice to a consumer prior to the delivery of the animal. Such notice, signed by both the pet dealer and the consumer, shall be embodied in a separate document and shall state the following in 10 point boldface type:

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS—A STATEMENT OF NEW JERSEY LAW GOVERNING THE SALE OF DOGS AND CATS

The sale of dogs and cats is subject to a regulation of the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs. In the event that a licensed veterinarian certifies your animal to be unfit for purchase within 14 days following receipt of your animal or within six months in the case of a congenital or hereditary cause or condition, you may:

- i) Return your animal and receive a refund of the purchase price including sales tax; or
- ii) Keep your animal and attempt to cure it; or
- iii) Return your animal and receive an animal of your choice of equivalent value.

Veterinary fees limited to two times the purchase price of the animal, including sales tax, which were related to the condition rendering the animal unfit for sale, must be paid by the dealer in the event that you choose to keep the animal. If you choose to return the animal, veterinary fees incurred prior to receipt of the veterinary certification, limited to two times the purchaser price of the animal, including sales tax, which were related to the condition rendering the animal unfit for sale, must be paid by the dealer.

Further, in the event of your animal's death within this 14-day period, except when death occurs by accident or as a result of injuries sustained after delivery, you may choose to receive either a full refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, or an animal of equivalent value. In addition, veterinary fees, limited to two times the purchase price, including sales tax must be paid by the pet dealer.

In order to exercise these rights, you must present to the pet dealer a written veterinary certification that the animal is unfit for purchase and an itemized bill of all veterinary fees incurred prior to your receipt of the certification. Both of these items must be presented no later than five days after you have received the certification of unfitness. In the event that the pet dealer wishes to contest the certification or the bill, he may request a hearing at the Division of Consumer Affairs. If the pet dealer does not contest the matter, he must make the refund or reimbursement not later than ten days after receiving the veterinary certification. Although your dog or cat is required to be examined by a licensed veterinarian prior to sale, symptoms of certain conditions may not appear until after sale. If your dog or cat appears ill, you should have it examined by a licensed veterinarian of your choice at the earliest possible time.

If the pet dealer has promised to register your animal or to provide the necessary papers and fails to do so within the 120 days following the date of sale, you are entitled to return the animal and receive a full refund of the purchase price plus sales tax or to keep the animal and receive a refund of 75 percent of the purchase price plus sales tax. In the event you elect to keep the animal and the dealer provides the 75 percent refund, the dealer is no longer obligated to register the animal or to provide the necessary papers to do so.

- 12) A pet dealer shall maintain copies of all notices required pursuant to (a)11 above signed by both the pet dealer and the consumer, for at least one year from the date the notice was signed and shall ensure that such notices are readily available for inspection, upon request, by an authorized representative of the Division of Consumer Affairs.
- 13) It shall be a deceptive practice within the meaning of this section for a pet dealer to secure or attempt to secure a waiver of any of the provisions of this section except as specifically authorized under (a)5 above.

13:45A-14.10 MEANS OF DISCLOSING UNIT PRICE INFORMATION

- a) Whenever a regulated consumer commodity is exposed or offered for sale at retail, the unit price and retail price shall be disclosed in the following manner:
 - 1) If the commodity is displayed upon a shelf, the unit price label shall appear directly below the commodity, or, alternatively, a unit price tag shall be attached to the commodity. If the use of a unit price label or unit price tag is impossible or impractical, a unit price sign or list may be used provided such sign or list is conspicuously located at or near the commodity.
 - 2) If the commodity is displayed in a special fashion such as in an end display, portable rack or large bin, the unit price tag shall be attached to the commodity, or, alternatively, a unit price sign or list shall be conspicuously placed at or near the point where the commodity is displayed. - 3) If a commodity is refrigerated, the unit price label shall be affixed to the case, to a shelf edge, or a unit price label shall be attached to the commodity. In the event such attachments are not possible, then a unit price sign or list may be used if the sign or list is displayed in proximity to the articles for sale. Where such proximate display is impossible, a unit price list for such articles must be kept available and a sign posted at the site of the articles for sale as to such availability.

13:45A-14.11 PLACEMENT OF UNIT PRICE INFORMATION ON CONSUMER COMMODITIES BY NONRETAILERS

- a) Prior to the remodeling of a store or resetting of the shelves taking place, a retail establishment may request from the director, or his designee, permission to vary from the unit price procedure. SUBCHAPTER 23.
DECEPTIVE PRACTICES CONCERNING WATERCRAFT REPAIR

13:45A-23.1 DEFINITIONS

“Customer” means the owner, or any family member, employee or any other person whose use of the watercraft is authorized by the owner.

“Director” means the Director of the Division of Consumer Affairs.

“Repair of watercraft” means all maintenance and repair to such watercraft, its engine or motor, but excluding lubrication, oil changes, installing light bulbs, and other such minor accessories and services. No service or accessory to be installed shall be excluded for purpose of this rule if the Director determines that the performance of the service or the installation of an accessory requires mechanical expertise has given rise to a high incidence of fraud or deceptive practices or involves a part of such watercraft essential to its safe operation.

“Watercraft” includes but is not limited to any craft, boat or vessel, powerboat, sailboat, motor sailer, mono hull, catamaran or trimaran, documented or registered (if required) in the State of New Jersey or by any other agency having authority to document or register watercraft.

“Watercraft repair dealer” means any person who, for compensation, engages in the business of performing or employing persons who perform maintenance, diagnosis or repair services on any watercraft, its propulsion system (internal combustion or electrical, inboard or outboard) or the replacement of parts including, but not limited to, hull planking, fiberglass sections and standing rigging, and shall include, but not be limited to, boat dealers, repair shops (fixed, mobile or marina) and marinas where such maintenance, diagnosis or repair services are available. Excluded are those persons who engage in the business of repairing watercraft of commercial or industrial establishments or government agencies, under contract or otherwise, but only with respect to such accounts.

13:45A-23.2 DECEPTIVE PRACTICES: WATERCRAFT REPAIRS

- a) Without limiting the prosecution of any other practices which may be unlawful under the Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., and to afford customers of watercraft repair dealers similar rights and protections afforded to customers of automotive repair dealers, N.J.A.C. 13:45A-7.1 et seq., the following acts or omissions shall be deceptive practices in the conduct of the business of a watercraft repair dealer, whether such act or omission is done by the watercraft repair dealer, its employees, agents, partners, officers, or members, or by any third party who performs such service at the request of the watercraft repair dealer.
 - 1) Making or authorizing in any manner or by any means whatever any statement, written or oral, which is untrue or misleading, and which is known or, which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known to be untrue or misleading.
 - 2) Commencing work for compensation without securing one of the following:
 - i) Specific written authorization from the customer which states the nature of the repair requested or problem presented; or
 - ii) If the customer's watercraft or any part thereof as defined in N.J.A.C. 13:45A-22.1 is presented to the watercraft repair dealer during other than normal working hours or by one other than the customer, or in other than distress circumstances, oral authorization from the customer to proceed with the requested repair or problem presented, evidenced by a notation on the repair order and/or invoice of the repair requested or problem presented, date, time, name of person granting such authorization and the telephone number if any, at which said person was contacted.

3) Commencing work for compensation without either:

i) One of the following:

- (1) Providing the customer with a written estimated price to complete the repair quoted in terms of a not-to-exceed figure; or
- (2) Providing the customer with a written estimated price quoted as a detailed breakdown of parts and labor necessary to complete the repair. If the dealer makes a diagnostic examination, the dealer has a right to furnish such estimate in a reasonable period of time thereafter, and to charge the customer for the cost of diagnosis. Such diagnosis charge must be agreed to in advance by the customer. No cost of diagnosis which would have been incurred in accomplishing the repair shall be billed twice if the customer elects to have the dealer make the repair. Should it be necessary to haul the watercraft and or transport it to the repair facility where the maintenance, diagnosis or estimate is to be made (in all but distress circumstances), charges for such hauling and/or transportation shall be disclosed in advance and itemized separately on the estimate or invoice; or
- (3) Providing the customer with a written estimated price to complete a specific repair, for example "repack stuffing box"; or
- (4) Obtaining from the customer a written authorization to proceed with repairs not in excess of a specific dollar amount. For the purpose of this subchapter, said dollar amount shall be deemed the estimated price of repairs; or
- (5) If the customer waives his right to a written estimate in a written statement, signed by the customer obtaining from the customer oral approval of an estimated price of repairs evidenced by a notation on the repair or invoice of the estimated price of repairs, date, time, name of person approving such estimate, and the telephone number if any, at which such person was contacted; or

- ii) If the customer's watercraft or any part thereof as defined in N.J.A.C. 13:45A-22.1 is presented to the repair dealer during other than normal working hours or by one other than the customer, obtaining from the customer either:

- (1) A written authorization to proceed with repairs not in excess of a specific dollar amount. For the purpose of this subchapter, said dollar amount shall be deemed the estimated price of repairs; or
 - (2) Oral approval of an estimated price of repairs evidenced by a notation on the repair order or invoice of the estimated price of repairs, date, time, name of person approving such estimate and the telephone number, if any, at which such person was contacted.
- 4) Failure to provide a customer with a copy of any receipt or document signed by him, when he signs it.
 - 5) Making false promises of a character likely to influence, persuade or induce a customer to authorize the repair, diagnosis, service or maintenance of any craft or its propulsion system.
 - 6) Charging the customer for work done or parts supplied in excess of any estimated price given, without the oral or written consent of the customer, which shall be obtained after it is determined that the estimated price is insufficient and before the work not estimated is done or the parts not estimated are supplied. If such consent is oral, the watercraft repair dealer shall make a notation on the repair order and the invoice of the date, time, name of person authorizing the additional repairs and the telephone number called, if any, together with a specification of the additional parts and labor and total additional cost. The watercraft repair dealer shall obtain the consent of any customer before any additional work not estimated is done or parts not estimated are supplied.
 - 7) Failure to return replaced parts to the customer at the time of completion of work, provided that the customer, before work is commenced, requests such return, and provided that the parts, by virtue of their size, weight or other similar factors, are not impractical to return. Those parts and components, that are replaced and that are sold on an exchange basis and those parts that are required to be returned by the watercraft repair dealer to the manufacturer or distributor, are exempt from the provisions of this section.
 - 8) Failure to record on an invoice all repair work performed by a watercraft repair dealer or for a customer, itemizing separately the charges for parts and labor, and clearly stating whether any new, rebuilt, reconditioned or used parts have been supplied. A legible copy shall be given to the customer.
 - 9) The failure to deliver to the customer, with the invoice, a legible written copy of all guaranties, itemizing the parts, components and labor represented to be covered by such guaranty or in the alternative, delivery to the customer of a guaranty covering all parts, components and labor supplied pursuant to a particular repair order. A guaranty shall be deemed false and misleading unless it conspicuously and clearly discloses in writing the following:

- i) The nature and extent of the guaranty including a description of all parts, characteristics or properties covered by or excluded from the guaranty, the duration of the guaranty and what must be done by a claimant before the guarantor will fulfill his obligation (such as returning the product and paying service or labor charges); and
 - ii) The manner in which the guarantor will perform. The guarantor shall state all conditions and limitations and exactly what the guarantor will do under the guaranty, such as repair, replacement or refund. If the guarantor or recipient has an option as to what may satisfy the guaranty, this must be clearly stated; and
 - iii) The guarantor's identity and address shall be clearly revealed in any documents evidencing the guaranty.
- 10) Failure to clearly and conspicuously disclose the fact that a guaranty provides for adjustment on a pro rata basis, and the basis upon which the guaranty will be pro-rated; that is, the time, the part, component or item repaired has been used and in what manner the guarantor will perform. If adjustments are based on the price other than that paid by the customer, clear disclosure must be made of the amount. However, a fictitious price must not be used even where the sum is adequately disclosed.
- 11) Failure to post in a conspicuous place a sign informing the customer that the watercraft repair dealer is obligated to provide a written estimate when the customer physically presents such watercraft to the dealer during normal working hours and, in any event, before work is commenced except in distress circumstances. In addition, copies of any receipts or document signed by the customer, a detailed invoice, a written copy of any guaranty and the return of any replaced parts that have been requested must be provided. The sign is to read as follows:

“A CUSTOMER OF THIS ESTABLISHMENT IS ENTITLED TO:

1. When a watercraft, its propulsion system (internal combustion, electrical, inboard or outboard) or any part thereof is presented during normal working hours, and in any event before work begins, a written estimate price stated either:

(A) PRICE NOT TO EXCEED $ and given without charge; or

- (B) As an exact figure broken down as to hauling, transporting, parts and labor. This establishment has the right to charge you for this diagnostic service, although, if you then have the repair done here you will not be charged twice for any part of such charge necessary to make the repair.
 - (c) As an exact figure to complete a specific repair.
- 2. For your protection, you may waive your right to an estimate only by signing a written waiver.
 - 3. Require that this establishment not start work on your watercraft, its propulsion system (internal combustion, electrical, inboard or outboard) or any part thereof until you sign an authorization stating the nature of the repair or problem if you physically present the watercraft here during normal working hours.
 - 4. A detailed invoice stating charges for parts and labor separately and whether any new, rebuilt, reconditioned or used parts have been supplied.
 - 5. The replaced parts, if requested before work is commenced, unless their size, weight or similar factors make return of the parts impractical.
 - 6. A written copy of any guaranty.”
- 12) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a watercraft repair dealer to provide a written estimate if the dealer does not agree to do the repair.
 - 13) Any other unconscionable commercial practice prohibited pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq.

- a) Without limiting the prosecution of any other practices which may be unlawful under the Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq., the following acts or omissions shall be deceptive practices in the conduct of the business of an automotive repair dealer, whether such act or omission is done by the automotive repair dealer or by any mechanic, employee, partner, officer or member of the automotive repair dealer:
 - 1) Making or authorizing in any manner or by any means whatever any statement, written or oral, which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or by which the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading.
 - 2) Commencing work for compensation without securing one of the following:
 - i) Specific written authorization from the customer, signed by the customer, which states the nature of the repair requested or problem presented and the odometer reading of the vehicle; or

- 6) Charging the customer for work done or parts supplied in excess of any estimated price given, without the oral or written consent of the customer, which shall be obtained after it is determined that the estimated price is insufficient and before the work not estimated is done or the parts not estimated are supplied. If such consent is oral, the dealer shall make a notation on the repair order and on the invoice of the date, time, name of person authorizing the additional repairs and the telephone number called, if any, together with a specification of the additional parts and labor and the total additional cost.
- 7) Failure to return replaced parts to the customer at the time of completion of the work provided that the customer, before work is commenced, requests such return, and provided that the parts by virtue of their size, weight, or other similar factors are not impractical to return. A legible copy shall be given to the customer.

 - i) The nature and extent of the guaranty including a description of all parts, characteristics or properties covered by or excluded from the guaranty, the duration of the guaranty and what must be done by a claimant before the guarantor will fulfill his obligation (such as returning the product and paying service or labor charges);
 - ii) The manner in which the guarantor will perform. The guarantor shall state all conditions and limitations and exactly what the guarantor will do under the guaranty, such as repair, replacement or refund. If the guarantor or recipient has an option as to what may satisfy the guaranty, this must be clearly stated;

- iii) The guarantor's identity and address shall be clearly revealed in any documents evidencing the guaranty.
- 10) Failure to clearly and conspicuously disclose the fact that a guaranty provides for adjustment on a pro rata basis, and the basis on which the guaranty will be prorated; that is, the time or mileage the part, component or item repaired has been used and in what manner the guarantor will perform. If adjustments are based on a price other than that paid by the customer, clear disclosure must be made of the amount. However, a fictitious price must not be used even where the sum is adequately disclosed.
- 11) Failure to post, in a conspicuous place, a sign informing the customer that the automotive repair dealer is obliged to provide a written estimate when the customer physically presents his motor vehicle to the automotive repair dealer during normal working hours and, in any event, before work is commenced. In addition, copies of any receipt or document signed by the customer, a detailed invoice, a written copy of any guaranty and the return of any replaced parts that have been requested must be provided. The sign is to read as follows:

“A CUSTOMER OF THIS ESTABLISHMENT IS ENTITLED TO:

- 1. When a motor vehicle is physically presented during normal working hours, and, in any event before work begins, a written estimated price stated either:

(A) PRICE NOT TO EXCEED $..., and given without charge; or

(B) As an exact figure broken down as to parts and labor. This establishment has the right to charge you for this diagnostic service, although if you then have the repair done here, you will not be charged twice for any part of such charge necessary to make the repair.

(C) As an exact figure to complete a specific repair.

- 2. For your protection, you may have to waive your right to an estimate only by signing a written waiver.

3. Require that this establishment not start work on your vehicle until you sign an authorization stating the nature of the repair or problem and the odometer reading of your vehicle if you physically present the vehicle here during normal working hours.
 4. A detailed invoice stating charges for parts and labor separately and whether any new, rebuilt, reconditioned or used parts have been supplied.
 5. The replaced parts, if requested before work is commenced, unless their size, weight, or similar factors make return of the parts impractical.
 6. A written copy of the guaranty.”
- 12) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring an automotive repair dealer to provide a written estimate if the dealer does not agree to perform the requested repair.
- 13) Any other unconscionable commercial practice prohibited pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq.

“Warranty” means any undertaking, in writing and in connection with the sale by a dealer of a used motor vehicle, to refund, repair, replace, maintain or take other action with respect to the used motor vehicle, and which is provided at no extra charge beyond the price of the used motor vehicle.

 - 2) The used motor vehicle is over seven model years old;
 - 3) The used motor vehicle has been declared a total loss by an insurance company and the consumer has been notified in writing of that fact at, or prior to, sale;
 - 4) The used motor vehicle has more than 60,000 miles and the consumer elects to waive the warranty in writing pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:45A-26F.4; or
 - 5) The used motor vehicle has more than 100,000 miles.
- b) The written warranty shall be in the same format, and contain all of the information in, the “Used Motor Vehicle Limited Warranty” form which is appended hereto as Appendix A, incorporated herein by reference, and have at least the following minimum durations:
- 1) If the used motor vehicle has 24,000 miles or less, the warranty shall be, at a minimum, 90 days or 3,000 miles, whichever comes first;
 - 2) If the used motor vehicle has more than 24,000 miles but less than 60,000 miles, the warranty shall be, at a minimum, 60 days or 2,000 miles, whichever comes first; or
 - 3) If the used motor vehicle has 60,000 miles or more, the warranty shall be, at a minimum, 30 days or 1,000 miles, whichever comes first, unless the consumer elects to waive this warranty pursuant to the terms of N.J.A.C. 13:45A-26F.4.
- c) The written warranty shall require the dealer, during the term of the warranty, to correct the failure or malfunction of a covered item as defined in N.J.A.C. 13:45A-26F.2, provided the used motor vehicle is delivered to the dealer, at the dealer’s regular place of business and subject to a deductible amount of $50.00 to be paid by the consumer for each repair of a covered item. This written warranty shall exclude repairs covered by any manufacturer's warranty or recall program, as well as repairs of a covered item required because of collision, abuse, or the consumer's failure to properly maintain such used motor vehicle in accordance with the manufacturer's recommended maintenance schedule, or from damage of a covered item caused as a result of any commercial use of the used motor vehicle, or operation of such vehicle without proper lubrication or coolant, or as a result of any misuse, negligence or alteration of such vehicle by someone other than the dealer.

- d) The warranty periods in (b) above shall be extended by any time period during which the used motor vehicle is waiting for the dealer or his agent to begin or complete repairs of a material defect of the used motor vehicle.
- e) If the dealer fails to provide the consumer with a written warranty required by N.J.S.A. 56:8-69, the dealer nevertheless shall be deemed to have given the warranty as a matter of law, unless a waiver has been signed by the consumer in accordance with N.J.S.A. 56:8-73 and N.J.A.C. 13:45A-26F.4.

13:45A-26F.4 WAIVER OF WARRANTY

- a) A consumer, as a result of a price negotiation for the purchase of a used motor vehicle with over 60,000 miles, may elect to waive the dealer's obligation to provide a warranty on the used motor vehicle provided that:
 - 1) The waiver is in writing;
 - 2) The waiver shall be in the same format and contain all of the information in the "As Is' Disclosure" form and the "Waiver of New Jersey Used Motor Vehicle Limited Warranty" form which are appended hereto as Appendices B and C, respectively, incorporated herein by reference; and

This bond shall be for the term of 12 months and shall be renewed at each expiration for a similar period. The Commissioner of the Motor Vehicle Commission shall not issue a dealer's license and shall not renew a license of any dealer who has not furnished proof of the existence of such bond.

If a used motor vehicle is sold "AS IS," it means a used motor vehicle sold is by a dealer to a consumer without any warranty, either express or implied, and with the consumer being responsible for the cost of any repairs to that motor vehicle. That means that it is being sold WITHOUT the following warranty which is available under the Used Car Lemon Law (N.J.S.A. 56:8-67): 30 days or 1,000 miles, whichever comes first."

This is the coverage available under the Used Car Lemon Law which is now being waived (given up) by the purchaser:

If, within the specific warranty period, the dealer or its agent fails to correct a material defect of the used motor vehicle after a reasonable opportunity to repair it, the dealer shall repurchase the vehicle and refund to the purchaser the full purchase price, excluding all sales taxes, title and registration fees or any similar governmental charges, and less a reasonable allowance for excessive wear and tear and less a deduction for personal use of the vehicle. APPENDIX C

Waiver of New Jersey Used Motor Vehicle Limited Warranty

I understand that because the following used motor vehicle is seven or less model years old and has an odometer reading which exceeds 60,000 miles, the dealer is required under the Used Car Lemon Law to give me a 30-day or 1,000 mile warranty, whichever comes first. However, after negotiating the price of the vehicle with the selling dealer, I hereby waive (give up) my right to a limited warranty on this vehicle and purchase the vehicle "as is". I understand that because the used motor vehicle is sold "as is," it means that the vehicle is being sold to me by the dealer without any warranty, either expressed or implied, and that I will be solely responsible for the cost of any repairs to it.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that because of the age and mileage of the below described vehicle, I would have been entitled under the law to a 30-day or 1,000 mile (whichever comes first) warranty. However, I have voluntarily waived my right to that warranty on the vehicle because I have negotiated a lower price for it without the warranty.

- b) The rules in this subchapter shall apply only to vehicle protection products purchased by a consumer on or after June 15, 2009. Vehicle protection products purchased by a consumer before this date and subsequently transferred to another consumer on or after this date shall not be subject to the provisions of this subchapter.

13:45A-30.2 DEFINITIONS

The following words and terms, when used in this subchapter, shall have the following meanings, unless the context indicates otherwise.

“Administrator” means a third party, other than the warrantor, who is designated by the warrantor to be responsible for the administration of vehicle protection product warranties.

“Director” means the Director of the Division of Consumer Affairs in the Department of Law and Public Safety.

“Division” means the Division of Consumer Affairs in the Department of Law and Public Safety.

“Incidental costs” means losses and expenses that are specified in the vehicle protection product warranty and are incurred by the warranty holder relating to the failure of the vehicle protection product to perform as provided in the warranty. Incidental costs may include, but are not limited to, insurance policy deductibles, rental vehicle charges, the difference between the actual value of the stolen vehicle at the time of theft and the cost of a replacement vehicle, sales taxes, registration fees, transaction fees and mechanical inspection fees.

“Vehicle protection product” means a vehicle protection device, system or service that:

1. Is installed on or applied to a vehicle;
2. Is designed to prevent loss or damage to a vehicle from a specific cause or to facilitate the recovery of the vehicle after it has been stolen; and
3. Includes a written warranty by a warrantor that if the vehicle protection product fails to prevent loss or damage to the vehicle from a specific cause or to facilitate the recovery of the vehicle after it has been stolen, the warranty holder shall be paid specified incidental costs by the warrantor as a result of the failure of the vehicle protection product to perform pursuant to the terms of the warranty.

The term includes, but is not limited to, alarm systems, body part marking products, steering locks, window etch products, pedal and ignition locks, fuel and ignition kill switches and electronic, radio and satellite tracking devices. The term does not include a vehicle protection device, system or service that is installed on or applied to a vehicle by the vehicle manufacturer at the vehicle assembly facility.

“Vehicle protection product warrantor” or “warrantor” means a person who is contractually obligated to the warranty holder under the terms of the vehicle protection product warranty. Warrantor does not include a licensed insurer.

“Vehicle protection product warranty” or “warranty” means an agreement that is limited to indemnifying the warranty holder for incidental costs, which may be reimbursed under the provisions of the agreement in either a fixed amount specified in the agreement or by the use of a formula itemizing specific incidental costs incurred by the warranty holder. A “vehicle protection product warranty” is not a contract for insurance.

“Warranty holder” means a person who has purchased a vehicle protection product and has entered into a contractual agreement with a vehicle protection product warrantor that obligates the warrantor to perform under the terms of the vehicle protection product warranty.

“Warranty reimbursement insurance policy” means a policy of insurance issued to a vehicle protection product warrantor to provide reimbursement to the warrantor for payments made under the terms of the insured warrantor’s vehicle protection product warranty, and to pay on
